McLean, VA - 10/3/2018: Potomac Financial Private Client Group, LLC was honored by the McLean Chamber of Commerce as McLean's "Small Business of the Year" at the annual "Suits and Sneakers" community event at the Pavilions at Turkey Run.

The Honorable Mark Warner, U.S. Senator from the Commonwealth of Virginia in a letter to Potomac Financial Private Client Group, LLC said, "Built by families, investors and entrepreneurs, companies like yours represent the best of the American Dream. Your vision, perseverance and hard work are commendable."

"We are honored to be recognized as this year's "Small Business of the Year" for McLean, Virginia. The Chamber and its member organizations make McLean a vibrant and ideal place for us to do business. The members of our firm have devoted hundreds of service hours to many organizations in the community including the Falls Church/McLean Children's Center, Toys for Tots, Rotary International, and Walter Reed National Military Medical Center. Many thanks to our amazing team for their outstanding service to our clients, their families, and the community," said Michael Kalas, CFP®, AIF®, CEO, of Potomac Financial.

Steve Richardson, CPA®, CFP®, CRPS®, President, added, "To our clients, our partner Commonwealth Financial Network, and the other professionals we work with, thank you for your business and continued support. We will strive to continue to provide you service and advice that exceeds your expectations."
